(By Associated Press.)

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 1.—The encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic chose Boston as the location of the 1917 reunion and adopted resolutions petitioning Congress to act upon the pending pension legislation. The "dog watch" of the National Association of Naval Veterans was held at Convention hall and brought together hundreds of men who had fought in the sea and river battles of the civil war. William T. Church, of Chicago, was elected commander in chief of the Sons of Veterans. Other officers named are Edward L. Graves, Bridgeport, Conn., senior vice commander, and L. L. Roberts, of Kansas City, junior vice commander. The Daughters of Veterans named Mrs. M. E. Clothier, of Rockford, Ill., as national president; Miss Mary Trede, Patterson, N. J., national vice president; Mrs. Katherine Reese, Mt. Vernon, Ohio, national treasurer, and Miss Ida K. Patterson, of Rockford, Ill., national secretary.

ORE SHIPPER'S DEPARTMENT (MOOCHERS)

Associated Consulting Engineers

Are you paying freight on water? Are your measures excessive? Are your cars properly weighed and cleaned out at the Sampler or Smelter? Are you getting paid full value of your ore, or are you losing ore by excessive moisture and another portion by improperly cleaned cars? Are your settlements as prompt as they should be? If not, let us "Moosh" for you. We have competent men at the various Samplers and Smelters to see that our Client's ore are correctly weighed and sampled, that his cars are clean when weighed light, and that he gets a prompt and correct settlement for his ore. For this service and anything that may come up in interest of shipper, our charge is based on tonnage and will be furnished on application. We are saving money for others, why not for you?

GEERS GOES THREE STRAIGHT HEATS

(By Associated Press.)

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Sept. 1.—St. Frisco, driven by E. F. Geers, won "The Knickerbocker" $5000 purse for 2:08 trotters in straight heats, going the three fastest heats ever trotted on this track. Geers won the first two heats in 2:05½ and 2:07. He set out for a fast mile the third heat and St. Frisco was soon several lengths ahead of the field. He finished in 2:05. Box, with Director Todd and Ernest with Ima Jay, had a hard battle for second money, Ernest winning.

Major Woolworth won the first two heats of the 2:09 pace. In a driving finish, The Savoy out-paced the Major in the third heat, the time being 2:06½.

A. L. Mack was the best of the five starters in the 2:10 trot, winning all three heats, while Young Todd won the 2:15 pace with apparent ease.

conscience. We have been told that Americans, if they do not wish to be killed, should leave Mexico and should keep off the ocean; that to save a few American lives it is not worth while to hazard the lives of American soldiers; that Mexicans should be allowed to spill blood to their hearts' content; that the European war is no concern of ours; that even as between Belgium and Germany we should be neutral not only in act but in sympathy. Not once has President Wilson squarely placed before the American people the question which Abraham Lincoln put before the American people in 1860; what is our duty? Not once has he appealed to moral idealism, to the stern enthusiasm of strong men for the right. On the contrary, he has employed every eulogistic device to lull to sleep our sense of duty, to make us content with words instead of deeds, to make our moral idealism and enthusiasm evaporate in empty phrases instead of being reduced to concrete action. America as a nation has been officially kept in a position of timid indifference and cold selfishness. America, which sprang to the succor of Cuba in 1898, has stood an idle spectator of the invasion of Belgium, of the sinking of the Lusitania, of the continued slaughter of our own citizens, and of the reign of anarchy, rapine and murder in Mexico.

We put the man who thinks and speaks directly, and whose words have always been made good, against the man whose adroit and facile elocution is used to conceal his plans or his want of plans. The next four years may well be years of tremendous national strain. Which of the two men do you, the American people, wish at the helm during these four years; the man who has been actually tried and found wanting, or the man whose whole career in public office is a guarantee of his power and good faith? But one answer is possible; and it must be given by the American people through the election of Charles Evans Hughes as president of the United States.

Mrs. Brown tells her grocer:
"Please send me some tea—black tea."
And he does!

But Mrs. Brown, perhaps, doesn't realize that there are two distinct types of black tea: English Breakfast and Ceylon. And that she might like one better than the other. The way to choose tea is by taste. If you will send ten cents, we'll mail you the Taste Packet—the simplest, surest way to know good tea.

The Taste Packet contains four parchment envelopes of Schilling's Tea—Japan, English Breakfast, Ceylon and Oolong—enough to make five or six cups of each taste. Address: A Schilling & Company 333 Second Street, San Francisco
